Pleasant News

From the Administrator

A special thanks to all our staff and family members who made Christmas special for our elders. It was reassuring to see all the activity, acts of kindness and love that was shared during this special time.

Just one more time, I would like to remind our residents and families to be sure they have marked all new clothing and other items that have come into our home.

Once more we will be getting ready for the facility wide resident satisfaction survey this spring. Nursing homes throughout the state will be participating. An independent organization will be conducting the survey, and we will let you know more, after we have our initial orientation.

Did you make some New Year's resolutions? We may not call them resolutions, but we have set some goals for 2018, and we are very optimistic about the year ahead of us.

PVH News – January 2018

Chaplain's Article

We have come to that “season” of year when many people make New Years Resolutions; and to make one or more of them, I believe, is a good thing. It suggests that the individual is seeking to do better, that he is not satisfied with status quo.

Today, I received a note from a missionary acquaintance who has ministered in South Africa since 1989; matter of fact, he was born and reared in South Africa; but somehow in the providence of God, he became part of a mission organization with headquarters here in America. He passed along the following thought-provoking lines: 1) “Action without vision is just passing time;” 2) “Vision without action is just day-dreaming;” and 3) “Vision with action can change the world.” This same missionary considered his life and ministry over the previous 28 years, and seriously pondered what he had accomplished, but more importantly, what he was accomplishing today, and where he seemed to be headed for the year ahead.

This is sound thinking. Let's put this into the simplest terms possible: 1) What have I accomplished in the previous five or ten years? Name at least one accomplishment that you did that honored the Lord Jesus Christ. 2) What would you like to see accomplished through your life in this year to come? Can you think of any personal involvement that the Savior could bless, and that honor Him?

Writing to a group of believers in Philippi, the apostle Paul, a prisoner in Rome, expressed a thought that revealed his dissatisfaction with status quo, and that he wanted to do more for his Lord. Here it is in Phillips Paraphrase (Philippians 3:12), “My brothers, I do not consider myself to have arrived spiritually; nor do I consider myself already perfect; but I keep going on, grasping ever more firmly that purpose for which Christ Jesus grasped me.” Should we be surprised that some from Caesar's household trusted in Christ? Paul was a witness for his Lord; may we all follow in his tracks! Passing on to receive their eternal reward were the following residents: Erma Meyer (11/26); Anna Plett (11/29), Glenda Wedel (11/30); Bill Adams (12/4); Wilma Duggins (12/6); John Moore (12/10); Charles John (12/11); Robert Huffman (12/14); Rita Saunders (12/17); Mavis Bishop (12/19); Rose Shelton (12/27); and Tony Petrocci (12/27).

The following churches are ministering in the Thursday Evening Chapel (6:30 P.M.): Zoar Mennonite Church on January 4; Zion Church of God in Christ on January 11; Inman Mennonite Church on January 18; and Hoffnungsau Mennonite Church on January 25. We all here at Pleasant View Home greatly appreciate the faithful ministries of these fine people.

January 2018 East View Villa and

Hello and Greetings to our friends in the Estates and East View Villa!

Very cold and blustery, we can say winter is here! Be sure to stay safe. We have several local churches to watch on tv Sunday mornings for your convenience. If the weather is icy or snowy, our trips outside of Pleasant View Home may be postponed for the safety of our residents. Also Cornerstone Market, our local grocery store, has a grocery delivery service for your convenience. For more details on the grocery service, please call Cornerstone Market.

Our Estates Christmas Banquet was a huge success with very delicious food and record attendance. We went to the High School and watched the Children's Christmas Program. Christmas In Inman was lots of fun with activities for everyone from eating and shopping, open houses and driving by the live nativity scene. We had a big turnout for our Christmas Goodie Day where everyone brought their favorite treat to share. We made a variety of crafts for Craft Day.

Our upcoming events include: Heavenly Bells for Jesus an all deaf bell ringing choir for our Tuesday evening program, Shopping trips, Creative Hairlines Spa Day, Potluck, Crafts, Soup Supper on 3rd Wednesday evening-Everyone bring a side, PRCA Rodeo at the Hartman Arena, National Pie & Popcorn Days- Be sure to come to coffee shop, bring your favorite or just come and enjoy the food on those days, Australia Day, Kansas Day, Movie/ Popcorn-date to be determined, lots of other programs for you all to enjoy and attend. For instance, Bible study, chapel, exercise class, balance class, coffee shop, Bingo, Game Night, and of course ice cream.

With the holiday season over, we still have lots of fun things to do. As always look for flyers as we have impromptu trips. As always I would love to hear what you love to do. Enjoy the reason for the season Jesus!

PVH Employee Committee has purchased a gift for each employee that works at Pleasant View Home, Pleasant Hills or for the Home Health Department.

If you have not yet received your gift, Please come up to the Business Office during office hours and pick it up.

We hope you had a wonderful Christ-

Have a very Merry Christmas,

Jennifer

Bill of Rights of Pleasant View Home

Know Your Rights under Federal Nursing Home Regulations

1. What are your Federal rights in a nursing home?

As a resident of Pleasant View Home, you have certain rights and protections under Federal law that help ensure you get the care and services you need.

Pleasant View Home must provide you with a written description of your legal rights. Keep the information you receive about your rights, admission and transfer policies, and any other information from Pleasant View Home in case you and/or your representative need to look at them later.

2. Generally

All residents have the right to equal access to quality care regardless of diagnosis, severity of condition, or payment source.

3. Exercise of Rights

You have the right to exercise your rights as a resident of Pleasant View Home and as a citizen of the United States, without fear of interference, coercion, discrimination or reprisal. You and/or your representative have the right to organize or participate in resident and/or family groups. You also have the right to choose a representative, including a spouse (opposite or same sex), family member, friend or others to exercise your rights on your behalf. Legal guardians appointed on your behalf may exercise your rights according to state law. You retain the ability to exercise any rights that you do not delegate to a representative.

4. Planning and Implementing Care

You and/or your representative have the right to be fully informed of your medical condition in a language you can understand, and to participate in your person-centered care planning and treatment, including the type of caregiver who provides services to you. You also have the right to refuse and/or discontinue medications and treatments (but this could be harmful to your health), and to formulate an

We enjoyed many special holiday guests throughout December. The service squad from the grade school caroled. The second graders came over and caroled and read stories to the residents. Zoar church caroled. The Sunflower stompers gave a performance as well. One of my personal favorites was the preschool class coming over to carol. They spent the morning receiving clues at school that lead them to Pleasant View Home where the Ginger Bread Man left them Ginger Bread cookies. It is so nice to be just a couple blocks from the school and
