Wednesday, July 25, 3:00 p.m.
Westport Room

Join us for the Great Courses series, From Monet to Van Gogh: A History of Impressionism. Professor Richard Brettell gives insight into the artists who rebelled against the formality of the French Academy and created the most famous artistic movement in history. This month we'll watch lectures nine (The First Exhibition) and 10 (Monet and Renoir in Argenteuill).

WESTPORT LIBRARY UPDATE

In this first column, I want to thank everyone who has contributed to making the New Westport Library Room Collection a viable and ongoing daily life entity of the Bishop Spencer Place Community, by attending the April 7 Open House, by visiting the Saturday morning sessions, by checking out books, by their verbal and written input, and by their recent donations, notably from Barbara Weary, Bill Bates, Bernie Jones, Dr. Doug Rushing, Bob Heyer, Clark and Ruth Achelpohl, and by others who might make donations between my writing this column and its appearance in July.

Several large sets were donated during June. Residents will remember the March 8th program by The Very Reverend Peter DeVeau, who brought seven volumes of the magnificent facsimile St. John's Bible. Bernie Jones has donated 10 wonderful spin-off volumes of The Bible. Dr. Jeffrey Weidman has donated the 11-volume Story of Civilization by Will and Ariel Durant, along with nine other titles by the Durants, in honor of BSP residents and staff. Dr. Weidman has also donated the 29-volume 2nd Edition of The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians, in honor of Bernie Jones.

Between this and the next column, updates will appear via email, so if you would like to receive such an update and your email address is not listed in the photo directory, please give or send it to me. Also, please share feedback and suggestions for subjects of future columns with me, Helen, or Steve. Thank you all very much.

—Dr. Jeffrey Weidman

Community Christian Church
Sunday, July 29 | 4:00 p.m.
BSP bus leaves at 3:15 p.m.

Chaplain's CORNER

On the 4th of July our Grand Old Flag is front and center—thanks to the work of an upholsterer! In colonial times, upholsterers did all kinds of sewing, from furniture to fashion to flags. Betsy Ross was an upholsterer who knew George Washington from church and who kept his ruffles and cuffs in good repair. Washington showed her a rough design of the new flag he wanted for our new nation; she made a few changes, and the Star Spangled Banner has waved o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave ever since.

On the 4th of July we celebrate the birth of our democracy with concerts and picnics and fireworks and parades. May we also take a moment to give thanks for the freedoms we enjoy, which some can only dream about, and to thank the One from whom all our blessings flow.

*All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above;
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all his love.*
(Matthias Claudius)

NOTABLE

We are proud to report our own Bert Bates traveled to St. Louis in June to receive one of only 25 inaugural Icon Awards from Missouri Lawyers Media, recognizing distinguished men and women for their exemplary careers and longstanding commitment to the Missouri legal community. Congratulations, Bert!

Garden TIME

The angel statue that had been standing against a wall in back of the two evergreen trees was moved to a more visible location in front of the memorial plaques. The beautiful statue was donated by Charlotte Bliss, and the new location is what she originally desired. Mysteriously, someone has since secretly planted four flowering annuals by the angel's sides. Thanks for your help, whoever you are!

Our rose bushes seem to have survived our up-and-down winter and the lack of a satisfactory spring. They seemed to be rather slow in their progress, and some of the committee were contemplating replacing the roses under the memorial plaques with hardy perennial hibiscuses. The annual hibiscuses in the planters at both ends of the concrete bench have thrived and continuously opened an abundance of beautiful flowers as soon as they were planted.

Comments, suggestions, and questions from residents are welcomed by committee members.
