Continuing Care Campus

'From Farm to Table' Project

- Contributed by Lori Knox, Director of Marketing

Loyalhanna Senior Suites and Personal Care residents have been enjoying the fruits of summer with many more trips to the local farmers market remaining in the early fall season. Residents enjoyed orchard peaches, smaller doughnut peaches, black cherries, tart cherries and blueberries. Naturally, we used these fresh fruits in breakfast foods such as blueberry pancakes, and desserts such as peach and blueberry cobbler.

Corn on the cob, peppers, onions and tomatoes - some from our own patio garden - were incorporated into stuffed peppers, tomatoes made delicious sauce for pasta dishes, and great for our salads and burger toppings! We even had some residents requesting spicy jalapeno poppers!

Fall is in the air and the apple selection is varied with Honeycrisp, Zester, and Rambo, which will provide chunky homemade apple sauce, apple crisp, and apple pies. Naturally, a plain fresh apple sliced and served with cheese is a popular option.

Elvis is Alive and was at Loyalhanna Senior Suites & Personal Care!

Elvis (impersonator Fred Sullivan) performed some of his classics to the delight of our residents! Elvis had our lovely ladies "All Shook Up," as he crooned, they swooned! "You Ain't Nothin' but a Hound Dog" had everyone moving and grooving. I think it is safe to say our staff and resident ladies loved him tender!

Christmas Tradition

- Contributed by Becky Noel

Our facility will be continuing our traditional Christmas dinner for residents and their loved ones. The parties will take place on December 5th and 12th from 5:15 to 6:30. The parties will include a sit down dinner, light music, and a basket raffle. The dinner will be served to residents and their families by the administrative and recreation staff. The campus will also be hosting a Christmas party for the LCCC staff which will include food and a Chinese auction.
