A Word Or Two From Lu

The month of May is a month of celebrations with fun and games: Graduations, weddings, all kinds of “fests” and you wish you could go to all of them. But one thing you don’t want to miss is the May 17th General Meeting at C. C. Young. Refreshments at 10:00 A. M. – program at 10:30 Eric Lindh, Chief Executive Officer of Project Transformation National will be our guest speaker. Some of you may remember that Project Transformation was founded several years ago by Sarah Wilke, then director of Wesley-Rankin Community Center and Leighton Ferrell, then senior pastor of Highland Park UMC. Eric will bring us up-to-date on the progress made during the years in between. The Youth entering this program are commissioned at the North Texas Conference’s annual meeting in June of each year. When you witness around 100 youth receiving this commission, you can’t help but feel that there is hope for our country and the world.

Just for your information, the Fundraising Event in March provided monetary gifts for the following:

Umpress Terrace for resident Pantry items

C. C. Young Benevolence Fund

Life Enrichment Groups on CCY campus

The YoungUn’s Choir

C. C. Young Capital Building Campaign

Many thanks to all who gave of their time, talent and donations to make this event a success! You are appreciated.

Have a most enjoyable Summer and be safe in all your travels. If you have questions about the Auxiliary, please do not hesitate to call.

Crews News

President and CEO, C. C. Young

May 2017

May is here – and what a change we have seen on our campus since January! The end of April marked the opening of our new entrance to the campus. Now The Vista construction is taking shape right before our eyes.

A little less visible is our strategic review of our campus trees. We always want to beautify and maintain our green space here at C. C. Young. This year, we consulted with D & J Arborist to survey and inspect all of our trees. With their expertise, we were able to identify the trees that needed attention and those that were potentially hazardous. As an added bonus, the company principals gave a presentation to our residents to explain the process and the many things that must be considered when assessing trees in general. The whole process took months from start to finish and we are happy with the results.

Many of our steadfast volunteers attended our Volunteer Appreciation Brunch on April 22. Our team said it Saturday, but let me say it again: We could not do what we do without our amazing volunteers. Thank you for all you do. You make C. C. Young a better place.

Please join us for the 2017 Spirit is Ageless Awards & Celebration of Artists and Writers on Saturday, May 6. (RSVP: rsvp@ccyoung.org or call Angela at 214-841-2831.) If you cannot attend, all the art will be displayed in The Point from April 26 to May 29. However, we hope to see you there!
