

Resident Profile: Jacob Chant

Jacob Chant is a quadrilingual as he speaks four languages! In 1926 his parents moved from Hungary to Brazil, to avoid persecution. He was born that same year in Brazil. His parents spoke Hungarian and the native language of Brazil is Portuguese. Jacob was part of a German colony so at school he spoke German, and of course he now speaks English! His favorite language is Portuguese. Jacob’s dad was a basket weaver and farmer. In 1959, Jacob and his wife, Lydia, and two children moved to Illinois for better opportunities. Another child was born in the United States. The family moved to the Mansfield area in Ohio in 1965. Jacob’s occupation was involvement with auto body work, even teaching school boys the trade. He learned to paint accidentally. One particular day after touching up a car with paint, he used the leftover paint on his brush and started to paint a palm tree and a lake on a trashed Volkswagen hood. He showed his experimental masterpiece to his wife who greatly admired it. Jacob then started to paint the walls in his garage. We benefit from his artistic ability by the many paintings that he produces in the activity room at our home. We so much appreciate his gentle, kind spirit and gleaming eyes.
