Resident Showcase

We will be hosting a Resident Showcase, on Tuesday, June 25, from 1:00-3:00 in the Main Lobby.

We are asking you to submit items to showcase who "you" are. It may be an award you received, a craft you made, a poem or book you wrote, knitting, cross stitch, or other pieces of needle work you have made, or a collection of memorabilia from your life experiences. Something that will show off... your likes, style, personality, and will let others know a little about you!

Please bring your items, that you would like to display, to the Activity Room on the Third Floor no later than Thursday, June 20, at 1:00 pm. The activity staff will type a brief description to go with your keepsake. We look forward to displaying the many different items you have to offer.

We will continue the Resident Showcase theme on Wednesday, June 26, with our Creative Writing Group at 2:00 in the Lounge.

Join us for Cracker Jacks, bottled Cokes, and a good time. Come hear the creative (and sometimes nostalgic) writings of your fellow residents. Here's a chance to learn about our writing group as well as discover more about your neighbors. Hope to see you there!

Entertainment in June

Jodi Stevens, of Jodi and Friends, has invited eight musicians to join her in a recital on Monday, June 3, from 7:00 to about 8:15 in the DePiro room. There will be singers, several pianists, a flutist, an oboist, and a violinist. Music by composers such as Beethoven, Bach, and Mozart will be presented, but there will also be different styles including jazz standards and music of a lighter vein. One of the pianists will play a waltz that she has composed.

Resident, volunteer, Joe Giovanelli will keep you entertained with his piano and organ playing on Wednesday, June 5, at 2:00 in the DePiro room. Bring a friend and enjoy the fellowship of this monthly performance.

Bill Porter will play his piano and sing for you on Wednesday, June 12, at 6:00. This month's performance will be a little different. Bill will be playing on the back patio off of the dining room, during your evening social hour. We thought this would add a fun, yet intimate, element to the atmosphere!

On Thursday, June 13, join your friends and neighbors in the Main Lobby at 2:00 to listen to fellow resident, Eileen Bracuti perform her Music & Fun program. This month, she will play a mixture of "fun" songs as well as some "folk" songs and promises to keep you laughing with her witty jokes!

On Saturday, June 15, at 11:00, in the DePiro Room, friends of resident, Faye Wingfield will be stopping by to perform for you. More information will be forthcoming.

Join Jodi & Friends in the Main Lobby on Wednesday, June 19 at 2:00. Jodi encourages you to sing along to the familiar music with the provided song books as she and her friends fill the second floor with fun, positivity and fellowship!

"WindWay", is a group of semi-retired professional musicians. They play classical Renaissance and Baroque music and some modern jazz tunes. One of their members, Nancy Garlick is a sister in-law to resident Dan Garlick. Join them on Thursday, June 20, at 3:00 in the DePiro Room for an hour of entertainment.

On Friday, June 21, at 2:15 in the Chapel, Rev. David Wayland will offer a communion healing service.

On Friday, June 21, Nursing Homes Swing brings you the very talented Haywood Giles Quartet. This is one performance you don't want to miss.

Inspiration

I recently heard Richard Johnson share about faith formation through our later years. A quote which stuck me suggests "our chronological age is the most inaccurate and crude measurement of our value, our accomplishments, and our spirit." It is a refreshing perspective. Our worth cannot be measured by a scale, calendar or resume. Our identity is in Christ. Such hope does not diminish with age, mobility, or social status. I was reminded of Paul's declaration found in 2 Corinthians 4, "Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal." (NIV). Be encouraged, God is at work in your life.
